

PROGRAMME

11th Annual Graduate Conference in European History

Beyond established narratives – New approaches to European history from the early modern times to present

27th – 29th April, European University Institute, Florence

THURSDAY 27th April

12:00–13:45 Registration

14:00 Opening remarks

Stéphane Van Damme (EUI)

14:30–16:00 Keynote:

Pieter Judson (EUI)

Against the Nation: New Narratives for a New Age

16:00 Coffee break

16:30-18:00 Parallel sessions

Panel 1: Beyond national narratives

Chair: Mate Rigo (Max Weber Fellow, EUI)

Peter Techet (Leibniz Institute of European History): Neither indifferent, nor polarized: Imperial loyalty and cultural diversity beyond nationalist narratives in the Habsburg monarchy – Italian and South Slavic Catholics in the Austro-Hungarian seacoast, 1890-1914

Yuriy Remestvenskyy (University of Vienna): Language and nation as "artificial projects"? Anti-Ukrainian narratives in today's postcolonial discourses

Nikola Baković (Justus Liebig University Gießen): Placialising the nation. Yugoslav nation-building as the practice of place-making

Panel 2: New approaches to intellectual history

Chair: Laszlo Kontler (CEU)

Ismay Milford (EUI): Interrogating the spaces between the national, the international and the colonial in narratives of African decolonisation

11th Annual Graduate Conference in European History

Beyond established narratives —

New approaches to European history from early modern times to the present

27th – 29th April, European University Institute, Florence

Joana Duyster Borredà (University of Oxford): Fluid narratives of the nation. Catalan intellectuals between regional, national and international narratives 1880-1920

Agnes Kelemen (CEU): Intellectual migrants or wandering Jews? - Narratives of a peregrination

18:30 Dinner at Badia Circolo

FRIDAY 28th April

10:30-12:00 Parallel sessions

Panel 3: Performing 'the nation' in Central Europe

Chair: Philip Ther (University of Vienna)

Pauli Aro (University of Vienna): After the expulsion. Post-war Austria and "ethnic German" refugees

Frederik Forrai Oerskov (CEU): In ideological transit: A conceptual approach to trans-ideological tourism

Christopher Wendt (CEU): Guidance, fascination, rejection: Embedding the Banat Swabian experience into interwar Romania

Panel 4: Re-thinking the production of culture, knowledge, and memory

Chair: Marsha Siefert (CEU)

Justina Smalkyté (Paris Diderot-Paris 7 / Humboldt University): Memory of the holocaust in Lithuania: Between national, regional and European memories'

Joona Nikinmaa (EUI): Innovation in informal knowledge networks European experiences and challenges during the 1970s and 1980s

Elisabeth Reisinger (University of Vienna): How 'bourgeois' was musical life around 1800? A narrative put to the test, and new perspectives for musicological research

12:00 Coffee break 12:30–14:00 Parallel sessions

Panel 5: Transnational agents and encounters since the early modern period

Chair: Peter Becker (University of Vienna)

Mariia Telegina (CEU): Towards early modern global history: Diplomatic encounters between the European states, the Ottoman Empire and Muscovy.

Maria Florutau (University College London): The enlightened European centre and east: A case study of knowledge transfer from

11th Annual Graduate Conference in European History

Beyond established narratives –

New approaches to European history from early modern times to the present

27th – 29th April, European University Institute, Florence

Transylvania to Germany and the Netherlands in the second half of the eighteenth century

Lia Brazil (EUI): Imperial agents and international law: An alternative perspective? 1885 - 1914

Panel 6: Antisemitism, the Holocaust, and beyond

Chair: James Renton (Jean Monnet Fellow, EUI)

Daniel Marwecki (SOAS, University of London): Moving beyond the moral narrative: How to write a history of German-Israeli relations?

Olga Kartashova (CEU): Holocaust history between liberaltion and sovietization: The publications of the Central Jewish Historical Commission in Poland 1945-47

14:00–15:00 Lunch in Villa Salviati 15:00–16:30 Parallel sessions

Panel 7: Early modern discussions and narratives

Chair: Ann Thomson (EUI)

Holger Kaasik (University of Helsinki): The ecclesiastical narrative and the teleology of the Christian calendar up to the 16th Century
Thomas Goodwin (University of Oxford): The Protean Guicciardini: Print and the Recent Past in Sixteenth-Century Italy
Martin Pjecha (CEU): Established Narratives in Hussite Historiography

Panel 8: Sexuality and gender at the centre of historical analysis

Chair: Katalin Straner (Max Weber Fellow, EUI)

Nailya Shamgunova (University of Cambridge) Rethinking sexual geography: Anglophone concepts of foreign sexual practices, c. 1550 - 1750

Samuel Huneke (Stanford University): The Teleologies of Queer History
Sanne Ongersma (University of Utrecht): "Of such stuff our mothers were!": British suffrage historiography and the case for situated knowledge

16:30 Coffee break 17:00–18:30 Keynote:

Philipp Rössner (University of Manchester):

The death of free trade? History in the age of Trump
20:00 Dinner – in the city

Panel 9: Colonial and imperial history

Chair: Corinna Unger (EUI)

Judith Breitfuss (University of Vienna): Splendid victories and "daring exploits": Colonial warfare in British India in English history textbooks, 1900 to the present

Paul Schrader (Free University of Berlin): Beyond emancipation: Colonialist production of knowledge and the history of sexual science, c. 1890-1930

Elzbieta Kwiecińska (EUI): "Centre" and "periphery"? German-Polish-Ukrainian orientalism, 'civilizing mission' and the problem of methodology

Panel 10: Reassessing the 'end of history' in Central/Eastern Europe, 1989 and beyond

Chair: Andrej Milivojevic (Max Weber Fellow, EUI)

Anna Calori (University of Exeter): Paint it red: An oral history of the last Yugoslav government - countering narratives of neoliberal triumphalism

Joanna Rozmus (University of Vienna): Theoretical considerations on the peripheralisation of rural areas in Poland within the transformation process after 1989: The shift of Polish state farm villages from ideological centres to peripheries

Mojmir Stransky (University of Vienna): The role of voluntary fire departments in late socialism

10:30 Coffee break 11:00–12:30 Parallel Sessions

Panel11: New approaches to economic history

Chair: Martina Steer (University of Vienna)

Amelie Bonney (University of Oxford): Pollution, explosions and disease:

European debates on risk management in the colour industry between 1800 and 1914

Jelle Bruinsma (EUI): Beyond laissez-faire Britain? Sovereign loans as tools of diplomacy, 1880 – 1914

Anna Knutsson (EUI): The 'black market' & the legal market - the same or different? The example of late eighteenth century Sweden

Panel 12: Writing history 'from below'

Chair: Pavel Kolář (EUI)

11th Annual Graduate Conference in European History

Beyond established narratives –

New approaches to European history from early modern times to the present

27th – 29th April, European University Institute, Florence

Georgios Vlachos (EUI): A nation of peasants: Why Macedonian peasants matter in nationalist studies?

Jan Burek (EUI): Communism, nationalism and working-class resistance in post-war Żyrardów, Poland, 1945-1953

12:30–13:00 Closing remarks