

“Homelands and Hostlands: Political Mobilization among Migrant and Religious Communities in Europe and the Americas, 1848-1939”

Leibniz Institute of European History, Mainz – 10 & 11 December 2015

Workshop funded by the Emmy Noether Programme (German Research Foundation) and the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (European Commission)

Programme

* * *

Thursday 10 December

14.00 – Welcome and introductory remarks (Dr. Eveline Bouwers & Dr. Niall Whelehan)

14.15 – Panel 1 (Chair: Dr. Niall Whelehan)

Negotiating Bonds of Citizenship and Ethnicity: the American-Jewish Congress Movement during the First World War
Dr. Sarah Panter (IEG Mainz)

Commentator: Prof. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt

“On the Road to Religious Freedom”: a Study of the Nazarene Emigration from South-Eastern Europe to the United States
Dr. Aleksandra Djuric-Milovanovic (Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts)

Commentator: Prof. Johannes Paulmann

15.45 – Coffee break

16.00 – Panel 2 (Chair: Dr. Eveline Bouwers)

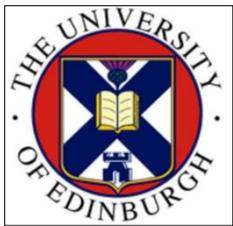

Catholics, Jews and Muslims in late-nineteenth-century Spanish Northern-Africa. Practices of Boundary Drawing and Boundary Crossing.
Sara Mehlmer (IEG Mainz)

Commentator: Prof. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt

American in Politics and Mexican in Culture: the Political Mobilization of Mexican Americans in Texas, 1924-1939
Dr. Claudia Roesch (University of Münster)

Commentator: Prof. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt

19:00 – Conference Dinner

Friday 11 December

9.30 – Panel 3 (Chair: Dr. Eveline Bouwers)

Between Homelands and Hostlands: Political Convictions and Political Actions among the Greeks of Vienna (19th Century)
Dr. Stefano Saracino (University of Vienna)

Commentator: Prof. Johannes Paulmann

Conflicts of Loyalty among Italian Catholics in Trieste 1890-1910: Between Italian Culture, Austrian State and Catholic Religion
Péter Techet (IEG Mainz)

Commentator: Prof. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt

Capturing Anarchists across the Borders: the Transnational Dimensions of the 'Red Week' Uprising in Italy (1911-1914)
Dr. Pietro Di Paolo (University of Lincoln)

Commentator: Prof. Heinz-Gerhard Haupt

11.45 – Coffee break

12.00 – Discussion round (Chair: Dr. Eveline Bouwers & Dr. Niall Whelehan)

Common themes; theoretical framework; possible conclusions; aspects that require greater attention etc.

13.00 – Sandwiches