

IEG

Leibniz-Institut für
Europäische Geschichte

Research Fellowship Programme

www.ieg-mainz.de

Leibniz-DAAD Research Fellowships

The Leibniz Association and the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) provide funding to outstanding international postdoctoral scholars whose research matches one of the IEG's own areas of research.

Visiting Fellows with External Funding

The IEG welcomes fellows who are supported by other organisations and who wish to conduct their research in Mainz. In the past, visiting fellows at the IEG have been financed by the Alexander von Humboldt-Stiftung, the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), the Fulbright Commission and others.

Inquiries are welcome at any time.

Disclaimer: Information concerning third-party programmes is given subject to change and with no claim to completeness.

For further information on funding opportunities and an introduction to the IEG's research, please visit www.ieg-mainz.de/en/scholarships

The Institute

The Leibniz Institute of European History conducts research on the historical foundations of Europe in the modern age. Its interdisciplinary research is developed and conducted by two departments, of Western Religious History and of Universal History, each headed by a director. Its research reaches from the early modern age to the present. The IEG's current research programme is conducted under the heading of addressing and dealing with difference: how difference is enabled, established and coped with in its religious, cultural, political and social dimensions. For more information on the IEG's current research programme, please visit www.ieg-mainz.de/en/research/research-program.

The IEG maintains a library specialising in the European history from the mid-15th century. Its collection focuses on European and international history and on the history of the Church and of theology since the age of the Reformation and humanism. The IEG also publishes the findings of its research in printed form and online, reaching an international audience beyond the circle of specialists.

CONTACT

Leibniz-Institute of European History (IEG)
Fellowship Programme
Alte Universitätsstraße 19
55116 Mainz
Germany
phone: +49 6131 39 39365
fax: +49 6131 39 39326
e-mail: ieg3@ieg-mainz.de www.ieg-mainz.de/en/scholarships

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES AT THE IEG

IEG RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME

The Leibniz Institute of European History awards research fellowships to current PhD students and postdocs. Grants are available for projects in the religious, political, social and cultural history of Europe between approx. 1450 and 1970. Projects in a transnational and comparative questions or addressing questions of transfer are particularly encouraged, as are topics in intellectual, church and theological history.

Doctoral Research Fellowships

The IEG's doctoral research fellowships give PhD candidates the opportunity to concentrate on their own dissertation project. Fellows live and work at the Institute and are advised by a mentor from among the IEG's academic staff.

Duration: 6–12 months
Funding: 1.200 €/month
Call for Application: December
(application deadline: February),
June
(application deadline: August)

Postdoctoral Research Fellowships

The IEG's postdoctoral fellowships support outstanding international postdocs who completed their doctorate no more than three years ago and who wish to develop a new project during their stay at the IEG. Fellows are invited to work with the IEG's academic staff in their research groups.

Duration: 6–12 months
Funding: 1.800 €/month
Call for Application: June
(application deadline: August)

IEG VISITING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME

Senior Research Fellowship Programme

The IEG's Senior Research Fellowship Programme allows established scholars from abroad to continue their own research project at the IEG and to participate in the lively exchange of its resident international academic community.

Duration: 2–6 months
Funding: Accommodation and office space, travel allowance, per diem allowance for expenses; free accommodation and work space, possibility of leading a workshop

HAB-IEG Postdoctoral Research Fellowship

As part of the collaboration between the IEG and the Herzog August Bibliothek (HAB) in Wolfenbüttel, one fellowship is awarded each year to enable a postdoctoral scholar to conduct primary source research at the Wolfenbüttel library and to write up that research in Mainz.

Duration: 6 months each at the HAB and at the IEG
Funding: 1.800 €/month
Call for Application: End of the year (application deadline: end of January)

Fellowship by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation - Volkswagen Foundation

This fellowship is open to up-and-coming scholars from the United States and supports research in Germany. Recipients will benefit from an attractive international community in Mainz in which to pursue their research on a specific topic.

Duration: 9–12 months
Funding: 2.100 €/month
Call for Application: October