

"The practice of religious toleration in past and contemporary Europe"

September 19-20, 2019 IEG Mainz

Draft schedule

Thursday 19 September

11.15 - 11.45 Registration and coffee

11.45 - 12.00 Welcome and introduction

12.00 - 13.00 Panel 1: Religious minorities in Germany

- Gerold Bönner, 'Effects of religious differentiation on the position of the Jewish Community in the Imperial City of Worms (1500 - ca. 1750)'
- Talat Kamran, 'Religiöse Minderheiten in Deutschland am Beispiel Islam. Rechte, Anwendung und Praxis'

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch (served at IEG)

14.00 - 15.30 Panel 2: Religious peace in early modern Europe

- Christopher Voigt-Goy, 'About the History of the Concept »Religionsfrieden« in Early Modern Europe'
- Henning P. Jürgens, 'RETOPEA'
- Christophe Schellekens, 'RETOPEA: historical research'

15.30 - 16.00 Coffee break

16:00 - 17.00 Breakout session

Friday 20 September

8.45 - 9.00 Coffee

9.00 - 10.00 Panel 3: War and refugees in early modern Europe

- Herman Selderhuis, 'Calvinists refugees in the 16th and 17th centuries'
- Davide Dainese, 'Among the ruins of the Christendom regime. Again on Grotius's occupatio bellica'

10.00 - 11.00 Panel 4: Mapping and disseminating knowledge on religious minorities

- Alessia Passarelli, 'Online Atlas of Religious and Belief Minorities (RMB) Rights and Claims in EU'
- Martin Liepach, 'Religious Treatments as Teaching Material in Textbooks'

11.00-11.15 Coffee break

11.15 - 12.15 Panel 5: Religion and politics in 20th-century Europe

- Mathijs Lamberigts, 'Religious liberty, Vatican II, and thereafter'
- Marcello Verga, 'Religion and European borders: the preparatory materials for the Versailles Treaty'

12.15 - 12.30 Final remarks and end of workshop