

IEG

Leibniz-Institut für
Europäische Geschichte

Ein Europa der Differenzen – Pluralisierung, Provinzialisierung und Säkularisierung Europas in der Neuzeit

Konferenzen des Leibniz-Instituts für Europäische Geschichte 2020–2022

Teil II: Contesting Universalism – Provincializing Europe? Universalismen im Widerspruch – Europa provinzialisieren? 24.–26.03.2021

Mittwoch, 24.03.2021

16:00–16:15 Johannes Paulmann (Mainz): Introduction
(MEZ)

How to Provincialize Europe – Reflections on Historical Perspectives

(je 20 Minuten Vortrag + 20 Minuten Diskussion + 5 Min. Pause, gilt für alle Sektionen)

Moderation Johannes Paulmann

16:15–17:00 Kiran Klaus Patel (München): The Province of a United Europe: A Global Perspective on the History of European Union

17:00–17:45 Marcia C. Schenck (Potsdam): Pan-Africanism, Decolonization and the Organization of African Unity's 1969 Refugee Convention in Global Perspective

17:45–18:25 Dana Robert (Boston, MA): Provincializing Christianity? Constructing and Collapsing the »Grand Narrative« of Modern Christian Europe

18:25–18:45 Pause

Provincializing Europe – the case of Islam

Moderation Noémie Duhaut (Mainz)

18:45–19:30 Gudrun Krämer (Berlin): Realities of power, dreams of omnipotence: The Middle East, Islam, and Europe

19:30–20:15 Manfred Sing (Mainz): Muslim Histories as Global History

Donnerstag, 25.03.2021

Contact Zones – conflicts and asymmetries in transcultural settings

Moderation Monika Barget & Thomas Weller (Mainz)

- 16:00–16:45 Christian Windler (Bern): Kulturelle Diversität und Normenkonkurrenz im globalen Katholizismus
- 16:45–17:30 Ronnie Po-Chia Hsia (Penn State, PA): Die Jesuitenmission in China im Widerspruch zwischen katholischen, europäischen, und nationalen Identitäten
- 17:30–18:15 Denise Klein (Mainz): Negotiating Difference in a City of Immigrants: Ottoman Istanbul between 1453 and 1800
- 18:15–19:00 Stanislaw Paulau (Mainz): Mission as a Mode of Provincializing Europe? The Making of Global Eastern Orthodoxy in the long 19th Century
- 19:00–19:20 Pause

~~Contested Universalisms – translocal practices and claims – part I~~

~~Moderation Andrea Hofmann (Mainz)~~

- ~~19:20–20:05 Monika Juneja (Heidelberg): Modernity's Invention of Art – Travails of an Itinerant Concept~~
- ~~20:05–20:45 Ulrike Strasser (UC San Diego): Global knowledge and the making of the enlightenment~~
[Both papers unfortunately have to be cancelled due to illness at short notice.]

Freitag, 26.03.2021

Contested Universalisms – translocal practices and claims – PART II

Moderation Eveline Bouwers (Mainz)

- 16:00–16:45 Esther Möller (München/Mainz): Provincializing the Red Cross. Humanitarianism in the Arab World in the Twentieth Century
- 16:45–17:30 Andrea Rehling (Augsburg): Whose Heritage? UNESCO Balancing between Common Heritage of Mankind, Sovereignties and Individual Property Rights
- 17:30–17:50 Pause

Provincializing Perspectives, concluding comments

Moderation Irene Dingel (Mainz)

- 17:50–18:00 Renate Dürr (Tübingen): Practices of Knowledge: Microhistorical Perspectives on Global Transfers
- 18:00–18:10 Judith Becker (Berlin): »European« Religion in Global Contact Zones. The Concept of Contact Religiosity
- 18:10–18:20 Madeleine Herren (Basel): Europe in Transit – conceptualizing a Global History of Europe
- 18:20–19:20 Diskussion